Learn more about individual health coming soon to your shelf

On March 25, PlanDirectTM, Canada Life's individual health product line will be available. This product can provide individual health benefits to your clients who've either lost their group benefits at retirement or who are self-employed or on contract and don't have access to a group benefits plan.

To prepare for launch we're offering a national call and a continuing education credits course. We encourage you to participate.

Join us to learn how you can make PlanDirect individual health a part of your practice.

Date: Thursday, Mar. 18

Time: 1:00 ? 2:00 ET
